Nov. u.—The German cele-brated the centernial amiversary of Schiller's birth with a procession, in which all German volunteers, singing societies, turners, and ben-eficial Societies participated. Each man carried a torch, and displayed numerous devices and transparancies, including a large bill printing press in operation. Many houses were illumin-ated along the way. There was a brilliant dis-play of fireworks. Salutes were fired during the march. Our reaching Broad street, the torches were thrown into a heap and consumed.
